Robertsdale Al 36567

Dear Robert:

This is to inform you that Baldwin County Economic Development Alliance is a Site Selection Magazine 2008 Top Economic Development Group Honorable Mention. As is reported in our May 2009 issue, the editors evaluated economic development agencies across the U.S. based on their success in attracting capital investment and jobs to their service areas last year.

Inclusion in the Top Groups Honorable Mentions is evidence that your area performed well above average in 2008. I hope you will accept the enclosed certificate as a token of our appreciation for the work done by you and your staff at Baldwin County Economic Development Alliance.

My colleagues and I wish you much success in 2009.

Sincerely,

Mark Arend
Editor in Chief
